LOCAL NEWS.

Ebin Stanley was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Yarrow, of Springerville, was in town on Wednesday.

Dr. B. F. M. Blake and wife have gone to Springerville to visit friends.

The irrepressible Henry Banta is writing up his journeyings in South America.

Mr. Apgar, from our neighboring town, Springerville, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Charles Banta returned yesterday from his trip to the Zuni villages and Fort Wingate.

Quigley, the restaurateur of the Monarch, has been seriously ill, but is up and about again.

The cottage of Nathan Barth has just been made ready for occupancy by the Gaston Bros.—splendid work.

Is anything to be done with our roads and bridges, during the coming century? What is the matter with the road board now?

We call the attention of the tax payers of Apache county to the advertisement of Tax Collector Baca in to-day's paper.

Frank Hubbell has returned from the Esquidillas—his countenance betrays the fact that success attended his mission.

Mr. A. Pechner returned on Tuesday last from his Zuni visit. Mr. Frank Walton, of Holbrook, came in with Mr. Pechner.

Lew Lynch came in Tuesday night from Navajo. He always comes when he wants to, and everybody is glad to see him.

Mr. Nelson, a member of the Ethnological department of the Smithsonian Institute, came into town yesterday from Springerville.

The Board of Supervisors of Apache county will hold their regular quarterly meeting on Monday, October 5th, at the court house in St. Johns.

John Swinburne is in from his ranch. There is something on his mind, and we have an idea its thoughts of home and the girl he left behind him.

Harry Silver has returned from Springerville, and henceforth will occupy the position of book-keeper at the mercantile establishment of Nathan Barth.

Ernest Tee, Supervisor of Apache county and stockman, came in on Tuesday, looking as if he had seen some field service during his week's absence.

The old jail is being remodeled, and will soon appear as the official chambers of the Board of County Supervisors, with quarters for the County Treasurer.

Constable Frank Walton, of Holbrook, having safely delivered his prisoner into the custody of the St. John jailor, left for home yesterday morning.

Sheriff J. L. Hubbell and his deputy left last week with Baca and Moreno, two prisoners for confinement in the prison at Yuma. Baca will serve six years and Moreno one year.

Lewis' wagon brings to his store regular supplies of the finest fruits from Los Angeles, and delicacies from all quarters. Make his trade lively and keep yourselves in good condition.

Chas. Kinnear, whose case was continued till the special term of the District Court in December next, has been released on bonds of $6,000. Sol. Barth and Antonio Gonzales qualifying in that amount.

Thomas Brady left St. Johns Tuesday morning to make his future headquarters at Springerville, he having leased the premises and succeeded to the business of Charles Kinnear of that town. Success to him.

From the size and perfection of the vegetable products of the few gardens within a mile of our office, and brought in town for sale, we need have no fear but that there will be large revenues to cultivators in the near future.

T. S. Bunch, the gigantic clerk of the Board of Supervisors, is getting ready to take up his residence at Holbrook. He is tired of grazing in the suburbs, and wants to hear the scream of the locomotive and see the "wheels go round."

The contractors are putting the finishing touches, in ornamentation, on the Brown Stone Jug—commonly known as the county jail. The inside has been ornamented for the past month or more with several pretty birds.

The bottom land, along which the new ditch has been run, is gradually being dotted with the houses and homes of settlers. The summer of 1885 will show the entire valley under cultivation, and bring prosperity and solid growth to St. Johns.

The Overland Monthly was received this morning. Always bright, full of interesting matter, ever pure. We shall enjoy it during the coming week. Every family in the Territory should have it—every library is incomplete without this Pacific coast periodical.

Frank Clark, late of the St. Johns Billiard Parlor, left for Holbrook Wednesday morning, to take charge of the Palace Saloon, now being fitted up in that town by A. Pechner, for the delectation of the Holbrookites.

"Uncle Jim" is setting things on end in this office, just to find out whether he could do it again as of old. He has held positions on the "cases" for many a year, and when he got under way, he found it was just like swimming—all you had to do was to hold your head up and kick.

Harry Monroe came in from his drive to Wingate, with a woefully sore head. Just before reaching this place, his horse became contrary, and getting out of the buggy to lead him along the hill, the horse struck him with his fore feet, inflicting ugly but not serious wounds.

Nick Chafin, an old-timer in New Mexico, but who is now managing a ranch for William Garland, in Arizona, is in Las Vegas, where he will remain for some time. Nick speaks very highly of Northern Arizona, and says it is a grand cattle country.—New Mexico Stock Grower.

Thomas Youngblood came in on Tuesday under escort of Constable Walton. He was charged by Messrs. Stiver & Burbage, of Holbrook, with grand larceny, and committed for trial by the Justice of the Peace of the Holbrook precinct. The Youngblood is now in the new jail in St. Johns, where he will rest in peace till the judgment day.

"Weep not for those
Who sink within the arms of death
Ere yet the chilling wintry breath
Of sorrow o'er them blows,
But weep for them who here remain,
The mournful heritors of pain.
Condemn'd to see each bright joy fade,
And mark griefs melancholy shade
Flung o'er Hope's fairest rose."

DIED.—At Show Low, Arizona, September 21st, 1885, Gertie, daughter of Robert and Clara Scott, aged 17 months.

It was reported, upon what authority we do not know, that the United States mails were to be restored between Navajo and Springerville to six times a week on the 1st of September last. Now a month has gone, and we are yet with a Government mail but three times a week, with no schedule of running time; no telegraph, no telephone, and eight thousand people depending on this route, are left out in the cold. What are you thinking of Mr. Vilas?

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to attend the second annual exhibit of the Arizona Industrial Exposition Association, to be held at Phoenix, Arizona, October 12th to 17th, inclusive. Our thanks are due the Board of Directors for the consideration. We regret that our engagements will not permit us to be present on the occasion. The annual gathering together of people, showing their works of art, exhibiting the results of their various industrial pursuits, is of more value to the Territory, than any other enterprise inaugurated by its people, for the general welfare. Arizona has within her broad boundary, the essential elements of future greatness. These exhibitions will spread the knowledge to all people, and should secure the hearty encouragement of all its citizens.

An enterprising fool, who resides at Coyote Springs, Apache county, and subscribes himself as "Brave Cowboy," writes a letter for the express purpose of informing us that he is an ignorant chump. If he will send us his name, we will do an act of charity by heralding the news to Mary.—Hoof and Horn.

SPRINGVILLE, Sept. 29 1885.
FRIEND REED—Enclosed find a scrap cut from Hoof and Horn, and as I do not know of any Coyote Springs in Apache county, except my place, I wish you would be so kind as to mention in your paper, that I neither directly nor indirectly, have ever had the honor of holding any communication whatever with the editor of Hoof and Horn. By making mention of this in your valuable paper, you will confer a favor on the writer.

Yours respectfully,
ST. GEO. CREAGHE.

We have placed the "Brave Cowboys" item at the head of Mr. Creaghe's note, which we received by last night's mail. Messrs. Hoof and Horn please send the "ignorant chumps" effusion to Mr. Creaghe, at Coyote Springs, and he may be able to help Mary out.
